SPAIN'S WITHDRAWAL.

How the State Department Regards the Situation.

ONLY A GRAND-STAND PLAY

Believe the Dons Will Weaken Before the Time Limit Expires—A More Serious View Taken by the Foreign Embassies.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The greatest interest was exhibited at the state department in all reports from Paris that came from unofficial but reputable sources.

The impression obtained among the officials that the situation is not quite as acute as was at first supposed. It was hinted that the Spanish resistance was really a spectacular exhibition intended to convince the Spanish people at home that the best efforts were being put forth to obtain the most liberal terms for Spain, and that at the critical point, some time before the expiration of the time limit allowed in the note presented by the American commissioners, the Spanish commissioners will succumb to the inevitable and accept a treaty on the lines laid down.

But even should they refuse to do this and the commissioners part without result, the situation would not be so very bad for the United States. As one member of the cabinet put it, the government will be under the necessity of taking possession of the Philippines by force. But it would have been under the same necessity, in all probability, even were a treaty of cession signed, for the insurgents promise to oppose our acquisition of sovereignty over the islands and will have to be subdued. But the United States government would have saved the $20,000,000 which it has been willing to allow Spain on account of the islands, and, further, and this is no small consideration, the administration would avoid dragging the whole policy of the war into congress, for there would be no treaty to submit to the senate to excite discussion and arouse antagonism.

AT THE EMBASSIES.

How the Foreign Diplomats Regard the Rupture of Peace Negotiations.

Washington, Nov. 22.—At the British, French, German and other foreign establishments the report from Paris that Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commissioners, had refused to continue the negotiations, was looked upon as presenting a serious crisis.

At the French embassy, where the peace negotiations were inaugurated, M. Thiebaut, chargé d'affaires in the absence of Ambassador Cambon, beyond expressing profound regret at this reported turn of events, said he would not discuss the situation; it had reached a point where the greatest circumspection was required.

Throughout diplomatic quarters the view prevailed that Montero Rios spoke for the commission and for Spain, and that the only interpretation to be put upon his course was that Spain had determined to break off the negotiations, taking the chance of a renewal of war. By such a course, it was pointed out, Spain could lose little more than she was losing by the peace negotiations, as Cuba and Porto Rico already had been lost, the Philippines demanded, and the bulk of the colonial debts was left for Spain to liquidate, while she doubtless continued in the hope that some of the foreign powers would come to her relief.

The leading diplomatic officials here agree that in this hope Spain will be disappointed, as it is said the powers have so many of their own entanglements to look after just now that they will not invite a rupture with the United States even though they may consider Spain's proposition to be right. Even Austria and France, which are the countries most favorably inclined to Spain, have given recent evidences that they would not assist her in the present emergency.

A rather pessimistic outlook is taken by one of the high diplomatic officials here, who believes that discontinuance of negotiations at Paris will be followed by the immediate sending of an American fleet to the coast of Spain, another to the Philippines, and a more bitter conflict than that heretofore waged. In his judgment Spain has reached the point where she is ready to lose all rather than voluntarily yield more, and will contest even though American troops advance to Madrid. It is universally conceded, however, that in the end Spain will have to yield, as she is practically without a navy, without funds, with a disorganized and rebellious army and with prospects of internal disorder. Some of the diplomats hold that a serious question arises as to the validity of the protocol in case the peace negotiations fail. It was, it is said, only a preliminary step to a treaty, and if the treaty fails, so too this preliminary step becomes nugatory, except so far as it has been carried into actual effect by the transfer of Porto Rico.

Lexington Deserted.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 22.—The Seventh United States volunteers (colored) left for Macon, Ga. The provost guard also left. These were the last to leave.

Americans In No Hurry.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The war department has found that it is impracticable to occupy Cienfuegos before Jan. 1, and Major General Wilson, commanding the First corps, which was designated to occupy Cienfuegos, has been directed to make such disposition of the troops that were about to sail as in his judgment will best serve the interests of the army. The preparations thus far made do not indicate that the United States authorities are in any great hurry about sending troops to Cuba.

MAJOR IVES

Says He Saw No Suffering Among Soldiers at Chickamauga.

New York, Nov. 22.—Major F. J. Ives, chief surgeon of the Third, or provisional division of the Fifth army corps, was the first witness before the war investigating commission.

Replying to questions by General Wilson, Major Ives said that while at Chickamauga he saw no distress among the soldiers for lack of medical supplies. He left Tampa in the transport E. T. Stillwell with the Second cavalry. The transport was fairly comfortable, but there were no suitable accommodations aboard for the horses.

"Were the horses placed above the men?"

"No, sir. The men were on the upper deck and the horses on the lower deck."

Major Ives told of his experiences in attending the wounded of the El Caney fight. Asked as to his previous experience in action, he said he was in the Indian wars, in the Victoria war in 1880, the Geronimo in 1885 and 1886 and in the Sioux wars of 1890.

Filipinos Want Damages.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—A number of very prominent Filipinos are here. They come direct from the city of Manila and are en route to Washington. The object of the visit is to present large claims for damages before the president and cabinet. The damages, the claimants assert, were incurred owing to the recent war with Spain, and an attempt will be made to show that valuable property owned by the Filipinos was destroyed by the Americans.

Cruiser Teresa Abandoned.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The following dispatch was received at the navy department from Captain McCalla, dated Nassau, B. W. I.: "Abandoned Teresa on the 20th. British local authorities, governor and our consul notified. Consul asked to recover name-plate, flags, moneys and such stores as were taken by the resident Bahamians, who evidently believed the Teresa subject to local jurisdiction."

Ordered to Havana.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The war department has ordered four companies of the Second volunteer engineers to embark at once from Savannah for Tampa, sail thence to Havana, reporting to Major General Greene, who commands one of the divisions of the Seventh army corps.

Dewey an Expansionist.

Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 22.—President Brown of Norwich university has received a personal letter from Admiral Dewey, in which the admiral says: "I trust the entire archipelago will be retained by the United States. Any other arrangement will lead to no end of trouble."

Sword For Hobson.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 22.—The Alabama house of representatives read and ratified a joint resolution appropriating $500 to buy a sword for Lieutenant Hobson of Merrimac fame. The senate is expected to concur in the resolution.

For the State of Texas.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Captain Robert H. Patterson, First United States artillery, has been appointed chief mustering officer for the state of Texas after Dec. 1.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The attention of the Anglo-American commission has been drawn by the Manufacturers' association of Canada to the recent rulings of the United States bureau of immigration that the commercial travelers of Canada fall within the restrictions of the alien labor law, and that they can not carry on their work on this side of the border. In bringing the matter before the Anglo-American commission the statement is made that a large number of commercial travelers from the United States have regular routes through Canada, and that if this country intends to exclude Canadian salesmen it will be necessary to restate it by excluding American salesmen from Canada.

DENIED BY SPANIARDS.

Have Not Withdrawn From Peace Conference.

A TRICK OF STOCKJOBBERS.

The Sending of the Cablegram Announcing the Alleged Rupture of the Negotiations — Name of a Correspondent Used.

Paris, Nov. 22.—The cable dispatch announcing that Senor Rios had refused to continue the peace negotiations and had withdrawn on learning the nature of the final claims of the United States as to the disposition of the Philippines, is pronounced by the Spanish commissioners to be untrue. It is claimed that stock-jobbers imposed upon a leading news agency, whose correspondent's name was signified by them to the bogus bulletin.

When the Spanish and American peace commissioners met in joint session, the Americans declared the United States must have the entire Philippine archipelago and for a treaty cession of the islands, the Americans tendered to Spain $20,000,000. It is further declared that it is the purpose of the United States to maintain the Philippine islands as an "open door" to the world's commerce. The Spaniards were given time to consider the proposition and the joint session adjourned to Wednesday.

JUDGMENT AFFIRMED.

Frank Schaffer Awarded Five Thousand Dollars For Being Blacklisted.

Norwalk, O., Nov. 22.—The circuit court has affirmed the verdict rendered in the common pleas court against the Nickle Plate railway awarding $5,000 damages to Frank Schaffer, a brakeman.

Schaffer claims that he was blacklisted by the company, in consequence of the latter refusing to give him a certificate of good character as an employee, so that he was unable to obtain employment on any other railroad. He brought suit against the company a short time ago in the Huron county common pleas court and was awarded a verdict of $5,000.

The Big Mill.

New York, Nov. 22.—Tom O'Rourke, who is Sharkey's backer, manager and trainer, says that Tom will surprise those who have doubts as to his ability. "Sharkey has improved wonderfully," said O'Rourke, "and is in fine fettle. He has trained well and carefully, doing everything that was asked of him without a murmur." Corbett only boxed a couple of rounds to limber up, and his trainer, Charley White, was more than pleased with his man. The latter said: "Jim has gone through his course of training splendidly, and he is a shade better than when he met Fitzsimmons at Carson City."

No Cause For Alarm.

Rome, Nov. 22.—In the chamber of deputies the minister of foreign affairs, Admiral Canevaro, replying to a question, said Italy's right to the port of Raheita, on the west shore of the Straits of Bab-el-Mandeb, had never been questioned by anybody. The recent visit of a French warship there and the landing of French sailors was only a momentary stay of the French in the neighborhood of the Italian posts.

Marine Disaster Recalled.

Shanghai, Nov. 22.—Prince Henry of Prussia unveiled the monument to the officers and sailors of the German third class cruiser Iltis, which was lost in a typhoon on July 23, 1896, north of the Shan-Tung promontory. The ceremony was very impressive. A large force of German sailors and marines was present, with American, British and Austrian sailors.

Silverware Trust.

Trenton, Nov. 22.—Articles of incorporation of the International Silverware company, the silverware trust, were filed with the secretary of state. The company has an authorized capital stock of $10,000,000, of which $9,000,000 is preferred stock, to receive 7 percent cumulative dividends, and the remaining $1,000,000 to be common stock.

A Tattler Responsible.

Marinette, Wis., Nov. 22.—A fellow-workman told William Menose, a cedar worker, that his wife, from whom he had separated, was about to marry again. This incensed him, and he broke into her home and shot her, inflicting a dangerous wound in the breast. Menose then shot himself dead.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 22.—A fire which broke out in the pork packing establishment of John P. Squire & Company, at East Cambridge, resulted in serious injury to eleven men and a property loss estimated at $80,000. The watchman of the factory was not seen during the progress of the fire, and it was feared he had lost his life in the flames.

FELL INTO A WELL.

Three Men Probably Fatally Hurt by an Accident at Newport.

Newport, Ky., Nov. 22.—Ben Bourseen of Cincinnati was probably fatally injured, and John Davis and R. F. Jackson, both colored, of Covington, were seriously hurt in an accident at the Newport powerhouse of the Cincinnati, Newport and Covington Street Railway company. The men were at work in a well which the company is digging to receive water from the river for use in its boilers. While they were at work on the scaffold in the well the cable to an elevator used to lower brick and mortar parted under the strain of a heavy load, and its freight of bricks fell on the men beneath.

The men were knocked off their scaffold and fell a distance of 40 feet to the bottom of the well. There was considerable water in the well and the men, stunned by the shower of bricks and the force of their fall, were almost drowned when rescued by workmen who had witnessed the accident.

Recommends a Government Road.

Washington, Nov. 22.—General James Longstreet, the commissioner of railroads, in his annual report calls attention to the general prosperity in railroad affairs and recommends the government construction and operation of a firstclass double track railway from Kansas City, to San Diego, Cal., by air line route. He says the physical condition of our railroads generally is better than ever before. He points to the spectacle of roads which, only two years ago, were in receivers' hands, now paying dividends on the preferred stocks and piling up surpluses, which in the course of a very short time, his report says, will be distributed among the common shareholders.

Hills of Spain.

Paris, Nov. 22.—The Soliel, reviewing at length the peace negotiations, says: "How miserable is the fate of our Spanish neighbors. American rapacity has not left them an inch of the territory they have possessed in America since the time of Columbus, or in Oceanica since Magellan. But that is not the worst of their misfortune. Their whole political economy and administration is going to pieces. Their parliamentary parties, which, moreover, never had strong root, are completely disorganized, and no one dares assume the responsibility of power. The present ministry remains because no one wishes to replace it. But it is almost powerless before the hills which threaten the country."

Agoncillo Displeased.

London, Nov. 22.—Agoncillo, the agent of Aguilardo, with his advisers, returned here from Paris. He announced himself as being very indignant at the statements made by Major General Wesley Merritt in reply to the arraignment of American officers made by the insurgent junta of Hongkong in an open letter to President McKinley and the people of the United States.

The general situation also displeases Agoncillo, and after recalling how the Filipinos have loyally and effectively aided the "Americans," he added, General Merritt's reference to the Filipinos "as children" is simply an echo of a Spanish saying, and he may, like the Spaniards, find the error when too late.

Will Be Welcomed.

London, Nov. 22.—In consequence of rumors that an American squadron of warships is to visit Portsmouth, the mayor of that place has written to the United States embassy promising to give the Americans a cordial welcome. Henry White, the United States chargé d'affaires, in reply, has thanked the mayor of Portsmouth for his courteous letter, which he will not fail to transmit to Washington. Mr. White, however, added, "I have not yet received advices of the visit by my government."

Smallpox on Board.

New York, Nov. 22.—The French line steamer La Normandie, which arrived from Havre, is detained at quarantine owing to smallpox among her steerage passengers. When the health officer boarded the steamer Surgeon Vaquer reported two cases of smallpox, the patients being Syrian children, who were taken ill during the voyage and promptly isolated in the steamer's hospital. The patients will be removed to Reception hospital, and all in the steerage vaccinated.

Attacked By Highbinders.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—While alone in the upper story of a dingy building Ah Pun was hacked and beaten by Ah Bow and Sung Yee, two highbinders, who fled at the approach of a lodger in the house, saving Ah Pun's life. The Chinese consul posted a proclamation warning the highbinders against violation of the law, and stating that not only in this country, but even in China their kinfolk will be held accountable for misdeeds here.

Famous Engineer Dead.

London, Nov. 22.—Sir John Fowler, who was engineer-in-chief of the Forth bridge, for which services he was created a baronet in 1890, is dead. He was born in 1817.

A HOWLING BLIZZARD

Makes Life Interesting In the Central West.

MOST SEVERE ON THE LAKES

Winds Blowing a Gale, Heavy Snow Falling and Mercury Away Below Zero—Fears Entertained For the Safety of Vessels.

St. Paul, Nov. 22.—The first general snow storm of the winter has prevailed throughout the northwest during the past 24 hours and it still continues without much abatement.

The snow has been accompanied by a high wind, reaching in many places the proportions of a genuine blizzard. The fall of snow has not been great, but the wind has drifted it badly and many places report considerable delay to railroad traffic. Specials from various points in North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Northern Iowa report the storm still prevailing and local business impeded. The weather observer here predicts that the storm will continue for 24 hours and will be followed by a cold wave. Battleford and Calgary, in the British northwest, report temperatures of 24 and 26 degrees below zero, and other places say zero weather is prevailing.

Locally the storm has been quite severe. About three inches of snow has fallen and a 21 mile an hour gale has drifted it badly, causing delay to street car traffic. The mercury is rapidly falling and the weather observer believes it will go to 10 or 15 degrees below zero.

The storm was especially severe on Lake Superior, Duluth reporting a 70 mile gale. A Duluth special says a report is current there that the steamer Hiram R. Dixon of the Booth Packing company's line has foundered. The Dixon left Duluth and the last heard of her she had passed Two Harbors.

Quite a Drop.

Kansas City, Nov. 22.—Sleet and snow have done more or less damage to telephone and telegraph wires in Kansas City and surrounding towns, rendering communication uncertain. Dozens of poles and wires have snapped under the heavy weight of the sleet and street railway traffic is hampered to a considerable degree. Trains in some instances are delayed. The storm seems to be general over Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. At Beatrice, Neb., the snow is blinding, the thermometer is 8 degrees above zero, a fall of 60 degrees in 24 hours.

A Remarkable Change.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 22.—A remarkable change in weather has taken place here during the last 24 hours. Sunday it was too hot for overcoats and wraps. Monday sleet began to fall, which turned into snow, and there was a fall in temperature of 40 degrees, the wind blowing a gale. The weight of the sleet has broken down many telephone wires and railroad trains are running irregularly.

In the Grip of a Norther.

Omaha, Nov. 22.—Nebraska has been in the grip of a norther. For 24 hours a strong wind from the northwest has swept the state, and during the most of that time it has driven a fine snow ahead of it. Considerable loss of stock, both cattle and

For Kentucky.—Rain or snow, cold wave, westerly winds.

It is reported the Republican National Committee spent $12,000 in Louisville to re-elect Walter Evans to Congress. That wasn't enough, however. The district is Democratic and will be represented by a Democrat.

JUDGE W. B. FLEMING, of Louisville, Assistant Secretary of the Democratic Congressional Committee and the compiler of the last Democratic campaign book, has announced himself a candidate for Attorney-General of Kentucky, subject to the decision of the Democratic State convention.

DANGER IN IMPERIALISM.

The opposition to the President's policy of imperialism has taken organized form, and the country is to be appealed to enter its protest. At a meeting in Boston presided over by Edward Atkinson, a vigorous protest was formulated against annexation of the Philippines. Andrew Carnegie sent his check for $1,000 to aid the movement. From present indications the Administration will soon have to face the biggest fight of its history. The protest is as follows:

A true republic of free men must rest upon the principle that all its citizens are equal under the law; that a government derives its just powers from the consent of the governed, and that there must be no taxation without representation. These principles abandoned, a republic exists but in name, and its people lose their rights as free men. Planting themselves upon those lasting truths, the people of the United States solemnly declared in their Constitution that the citizens of each State should have the privilege and immunities of citizens of the several States; that all persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to its jurisdiction should be citizens of the United States and the several States, and that the rights of none should be abridged on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.

The Constitution gives to the United States no more than to the individual the right to hold slaves or vassals, and recognizes no distinction between classes of citizens, one with full rights as free men and another as subjects governed by military force.

We are in full sympathy with the heroic struggle for liberty of the people of the Spanish islands, and, therefore, we protest against depriving them of their rights by an exchange of masters.

Expansion by natural growth in thinly settled contiguous territory, acquired by purchase for the expressed purpose of ultimate Statehood, cannot be confounded with nor made analogous to foreign territory conquered by war and wrested by force from a weak enemy. A beaten foe has no right to transfer a people whose consent has not been asked, and a free republic has no right to hold in subjection a people so transferred.

No American until to-day has disputed these propositions; it remains for the new imperialism to set up the law of might, and to place commercial gain and a false philanthropy above the sound principles upon which the republic was based. In defense of its position it has already urged the fallacy of the Declaration of Independence and proclaimed a wisdom superior to the framers of the Constitution.

As solemnly as a people could we announce the war to be wholly for humanity and freedom, without a thought, desire or purpose of gain to ourselves. All that we sought has been accomplished in Cuba's liberation. Shall we now prove false to our declaration, and seize by force islands thousands of miles away, whose peoples have not desired our presence, and whose will we have not asked?

Whatever islands we take must be annexed or held in vassalage to the republic. Either course is dangerous to the physical and moral safety of the nation, inconsistent with our professions, and must result in foreign complications which will imperil and delay the settlement of pressing financial, labor and administrative questions at home.

Impressed with the importance of these views, and recalling the declaration of the President that the war with Spain could never degenerate into a war of conquest, we have deferred action until it has become apparent that pressure was being brought upon the President to convince him that public opinion demands the inclusion of alien territory and great masses of alien people into the territory of the United States.

We stand by the President's declaration, and in order to give evidence of the opposition to a foreign expansion policy by a vast body of our people have organized an anti-imperialist league.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. a bottle at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

MAJOR W. L. MARSHALL.

Mason County Man in Whose Honor "Marshall Pass" Was Named—Now in Charge of Important Government Work.

[B. in Columbia, Mo., Herald.]

Major William Lewis Marshall, corps of engineers U. S. A., was born at Maysville, Kentucky, in 1846. When nine years of age he swam across the Ohio river at Maysville. At the age of sixteen he entered the West Point Military Academy. He has been connected with the army ever since as one of the engineer corps.

Between 1872 and 1876 Major Marshall was engaged in triangulation surveys for the United States Government in southwest Colorado, and located the position of all the mountains. Mt. Ouray, 14,000 feet high, he has been on the top of several times.

The Indian route through southwest Colorado was circuitous. In January, 1873, Major Marshall, realizing the importance of a more direct connection and his necessities at the time demanding it, sought out nearer route through the mountains and he discovered a route 150 miles shorter. He was occupied six days in traversing the pass through the wintry snows. The pass was named after the discoverer, "Marshall Pass," and it is still known by that name.

The elevation of the pass above the sea is 10,827 feet. Some years ago a monument was placed on the line of Colorado and Utah, properly described and its position determined. It was further described as being opposite a Mormon Church. In making surveys several years afterwards it was found that the astronomical position of the monument varied over a mile from the described position. Its position was tested three times and showed the same variation every time. Finally it was found that the Mormons had moved their church over a mile from where it formerly was and also moved the monument, but had not moved no one, hence the error.

Major Marshall is now stationed at Chicago and has charge of government work there and also of the Hennepin canal and controls the disbursement of about $400,000 a year and a working force of over 1,500 men. Major Marshall since last spring is also a member of the Missouri River Commission. He is over six feet in height and weighs probably 250 pounds. He is an agreeable and very pleasant gentleman to travel with and is very fond of a joke and his smile is very pleasant.

REPUBLICAN WON

In a Contest Before Kentucky Court of Appeals—Disputed Question Settled.

FRANKFORT, KY., Nov. 19.—The Court of Appeals to-day decided the contested election case from Ohio County in favor of Anderson, who ran for County Clerk on the Republican ticket.

Several questions as to the proper construction of the election laws were involved, but the most important was as to the right to recount the vote of any precinct after the ballots had been destroyed. The court holds that where all the election officers agree on the count and destroy the ballots no recount can be had.

HECHINGER'S

The crowds of buyers increase daily, and is the best possible proof of every statement made and the genuineness of every garment offered.

There is not another Clothing store in Kentucky to-day that enjoys the confidence of the public to the high degree ours does. There is satisfaction in dealing in a store where a customer that absolutely knows nothing of values in goods shares the same treatment that an expert commands. We briefly call your attention to a few of the many good things we want you to partake of:

HAVE you seen the beautiful and artistic favor cards—the handiwork of one of our city young ladies—in Ballenger's window? If you are giving a luncheon, tea, or entertaining a club, your table can not be complete without them. Orders left at Ballenger's promptly attended to.

CHAS. C. MOORE, the erratic editor of the Bluegrass Blade, notified Prof. J. J. Rucker personally a few days ago at Georgetown, that in the future the latter must never again cross his path. Moore accuses Prof. Rucker of sending a copy of the Blade to the authorities at Washington in which Rucker marked an article on "free love," and which article caused the arrest of Moore. The latter stated he was on the verge of insanity, and warned Rucker to keep out of his path. It is said Moore's friends will try to have him placed in a sanitarium.

THE Enquirer Monday contained a notice of the death of Samuel L. Jones, with a request that Maysville papers copy it. Deceased was sixty years of age, and was a carriage blacksmith, residing at No. 2157 Gilbert avenue. He was found dead in his yard about 5 o'clock Sunday evening by his son, William P. Jones. Dr. E. C. Caldwell, of Cross Lane, Walnut Hills, who had been treating Jones, was summoned, and said that death was due to heart disease. It was reported that the deceased had fallen down a flight of stairs, but no mark of violence was found on the body.

THINKS Business Outlook is Bright.

In an interview Saturday President Ingalls, of the C. and O. and Big Four, said: "The Chesapeake and Ohio and the Big Four roads are doing big business. We are making money. I am a great believer just now in business. It is picking up everywhere. Everything looks rosy. Money is plentiful and there is prosperity that is rolling along from the farthest West and South and from the East and North. The future, indeed, looks good to me. Do you know that I have the best indications of good times in New York here since my arrival? Well, I have. When times are good men crowd into New York with business schemes. When times are bad they do not. New York is filled with men now who have business schemes requiring greater or less sums of money to operate. Money is going into these schemes, too, in great quantities. Wealth is cutting loose, as it were."

Battenbergs.—Some dainty conceits for Christmas gifts. None too soon to prepare; better now, while things are fresh. These beauty bits are easy to hide away. Small Doilies 25c., 35c.; large ones 45 and 50c. Higher priced ones, too.

Gloves.—Bargains! Don't think the less of the Gloves. It's thanksgiving selling. We have the best dollar Glove that money can buy. That's putting it strong, but we're very earnest in this Kid Glove matter. Better Gloves for $1.00 there are none. Glove art reaches its highest possibility in the Fedora. Two clasps, embroidered backs, black, white, colors.

Women's Wraps.—$5, $7, $8 and $10 do large duty in Wrap buying this fall. There is service and style in the garments, too. Just a descriptive word to set you thinking. Five-dollar Covert Cloth Jackets, the new crede style, notched collar, tailor back, flap pockets, lined with satin rhadame. Match them elsewhere for $7. $8.50, the new Sadler Shirt Coat, cut after a late London model—a coat to win approving looks from feminine eyes.

Dress Goods.—Lowness of price is only one factor, highness of quality and general rightness is equally important. These lots are worthy bargains from every standpoint.

Scotch Mixtures.—Fifty cent quality at 39c.; 65c. quality at 50c.; 80c. quality at 75c., of pure wool, and from a mill that keeps its standard at highest notch. These goods are dressy, yet they'll stand the wear and tear of knock-about use.

Moore accuses Prof. Rucker of sending a copy of the Blade to the authorities at Washington in which Rucker marked an article on "free love," and which article caused the arrest of Moore. The latter stated he was on the verge of insanity, and warned Rucker to keep out of his path. It is said Moore's friends will try to have him placed in a sanitarium.

THINKS Business Outlook is Bright.

In an interview Saturday President Ingalls, of the C. and O. and Big Four, said: "The Chesapeake and Ohio and the Big Four roads are doing big business. We are making money. I am a great believer just now in business. It is picking up everywhere. Everything looks rosy. Money is plentiful and there is prosperity that is rolling along from the farthest West and South and from the East and North. The future, indeed, looks good to me. Do you know that I have the best indications of good times in New York here since my arrival? Well, I have. When times are good men crowd into New York with business schemes. When times are bad they do not. New York is filled with men now who have business schemes requiring greater or less sums of money to operate. Money is going into these schemes, too, in great quantities. Wealth is cutting loose, as it were."

THEIR FRANCHISE VALUES

Included in the Assessment of Kentucky Railroads This Year—The Figures.

FRANKFORT, KY., Nov. 19.—The State Railroad Commission completed the assessment of all the railroads in the State to-day, and when it certifies to the State Auditor it will also certify that it has included the value of the franchise in each assessment, and if the Auditor accepts the assessment it will end the contention that has been going on for a year as to whether the State Board of Valuation or the Railroad Commission has the power to assess railroad franchises.

The total assessment of all railroads this year will practically be the same as the assessment of 1896 and an increase over 1897 of about $500,000.

Its report to the Governor will show no increase in mileage in Kentucky, and no important changes or sales. The total assessed value has not been made out, but the Commissioners say it will be $52,000,000.

Mr. Gus Galbreath, whose illness we noticed last week, is dead. He was buried at Mt. Olive, last Friday. Deceased had been greatly afflicted for several years.

Our community is again in sadness. The messenger upon the pale horse visited us Saturday night and bore away the spirit of Mrs. Viola V. Styles, wife of Mr. Rufus Styles, and daughter of Rev. Taylor Hill, deceased. She will be greatly missed, as a neighbor and as a Christian. She was organist for the Shannon congregation and greatly loved by all who knew her. Her husband and bright little daughter of five years have the sympathy of the entire community. She died of typhoid fever.

HEALTHY, happy children make better men and women of us all. A little care and a little planning before birth is often more important than anything that can be done after. On the mother's health and strength depend the life and the future of the children. A weak and sickly woman cannot bear strong and healthy children. Most of the weakness of women is utterly inexhaustable. Proper care and proper medicine will cure almost any disorder of the feminine organism. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been tested in thirty years of practice. It is healing, soothing, strengthening. It is perfectly natural in its operation and effect. By its use, thousands of weak women have been made strong and healthy—have been made the mothers of strong and healthy children. Taken during gestation, it makes childbirth easy and almost painless and insures the well being of both mother and child. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 100s page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

New Burley Offered More Freely—Competition More Lively—Prices Generally Satisfactory.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.]

Sales on our market for the week just closed amounted to 1,171 hds., with receipts for the same period 709 hds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 92,801 hds. Sales of the crop of 1897 on our market to this date amount to 75,214 hds.

New burley has been offered more freely the past week, total offerings amounting to 380 hds. The quality does not show any great improvement. We have had more competition than at any time since we began to sell the 1897 crop, several large manufacturers who have not been noticing new burley being free bidders. Prices for the common and medium grades have generally been satisfactory to sellers, the rejections being very few in the grades selling between 4c. and 8c. The best leaf offered from 9c. to 11c. The prices offered for these sorts are not as satisfactory to sellers as the grades mentioned above. Nothing has appeared on our break that could be classed as fine.

Old burley shows some improvement over previous week's prices. The advance is more plainly seen in the common red sorts selling between 4c. and 8c. We can see any great change in red fillers selling between 8½c. and 10c. The better grades of leaf selling from 12c. to 15c. met with more competition at better prices than have ruled for sometime past. The demand has been good for bright smokers below 8c. at better prices.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco (1897) crop:

Trash (green or mixed)	$ 4.00 @ 5.00
Common color trash	5.50 @ 7.00
Medium to good color trash	7.00 @ 10.00
Common lugs, not color	7.00 @ 8.00
Common color lugs	7.50 @ 9.00
Medium to good color lugs	9.50 @ 11.00
Common good leaf	10.00 @ 15.00
Good to fine leaf	13.00 @ 18.00
Select wrapper leaf	18.00 @ 26.00
